Uchenna Dance

HANSEL & GRETEL

Barton upon Humber

An imaginative new take on a favourite fairy tale, Uchenna Dance's twist to this well-known story weaves distinctive dance styles of House, Waacking, Vogue, African and Contemporary dance, to deliver a magical and relatable retelling of Hansel and Gretel.

Told from the children's perspective, our two young heroes brave a big journey and find themselves lost in the city, overwhelmed by the sights, sounds and smells. Separated from their kind guardian, the clever duo must use their smarts and determination to outwit the adults and find a way for their little modern family to stay in a show where kids are number one!

Audience: Children/family

www.uchennadance.com

Uchenna Dance hook audiences into a mighty groove and choreographer Vicki Igbokwe promises tasty beats in her version of the gingerbread-house caper. ... Many festive kids shows are billed as a celebration of the imagination but few will get their young audience waacking and voguing like this.

Ryan Cook

AN EVENING WITH RYAN COOK

Winterringham

Mixing classic country music with modern satire, Ryan Cook has forged a sound between contemporary folk and dyed-in-the-wool country. With nuances of pop and western swing, Ryan's songbook reminiscences of the early hillbilly and folk pioneers but stays very much in the current landscape. On stage Ryan has toured as a solo performer opening for Country purists like Dwight Yoakam, Rosanne Cash and Travis Tritt. His acoustic live show combines thumb-picking guitar styles, original folk and country ballads and vintage music from the 1940s and 1950s.

Audience: All ages

www.ryancook.ca

We've worked with Ryan on dozens of shows over the years and I can't think of a more consummate professional. He is a delight to work with and more importantly, always delivers a world-class show perfectly tailored to the venue and audience.

CLIMB THAT TREE

Brigg • Appleby • Kirton in Lindsey

David Gibb is on a one man mission to make brilliant, engaging and high quality music for families and children. Climb That Tree is the brand new show from award-winning songwriter and musician David Gibb. Join David on a musical journey through his hilarious and often surreal imagination, where bears live in the cupboard under the stairs, wolves are roaming the corridors at school and trips to the moon are a regular occurrence.

This latest release builds on the success of his critically acclaimed debut album Letters Through Your Door, which had families across the UK singing (quite literally) its praises. David's songwriting draws from a wide range of musical influences, deftly blending folk, jazz, reggae and rock and roll, always with an emphasis on quality and musicianship reminiscent of the classics. Guaranteed to have both parents and children singing along in no time, this is music that the whole family can enjoy together.

Audience: Children/Family 3 upwards

Prepare to be carried away with the music, packed full of catchy toe tapping numbers. The Guardian

David Gibb has a well-deserved cult following for his stage show which includes tales of dragons and driving chocolate cars. His lyrics are genuinely side splitting and tunes guaranteed to get stuck in your head for days. Creative Tourist

JOAN & JIMMY

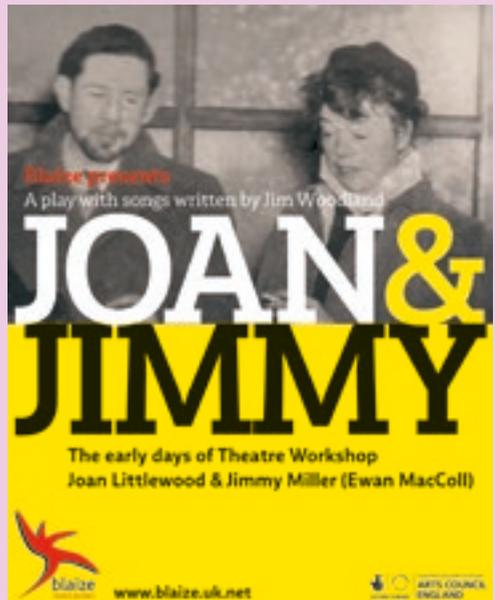

Barton upon Humber

Joan and Jimmy tells the story of Joan Littlewood and Jimmy Miller, standing amongst the rubble of 1945 post war Britain. Jimmy Miller has changed his name to Ewan MacColl; and both are embarking on a career in radical political theatre, performing one-night stands across the North of England – early rural touring! They founded Theatre Workshop in Kendal with a travelling troupe of storytellers and outlaws committed to the overthrow of the established order where the rich got richer and the poor got austerity – even then! In 1952 they would part company. Joan and Theatre workshop heading to London and Ewan to the folk music world.

In the theatre workshop tradition, Joan and Jimmy asks the audience to reach their own conclusions and take the ending of these stories and songs beyond the village hall and into their own lives.

Audience: 12+ adults
