The Hut People

IN CONCERT

Epworth Thurlow • Kirton in Lindsey • Winterringham • Wroot

Taking the audience on a musical journey around the World, English duo The Hut People (Sam Pirt and Gary Hammond) have firmly established themselves as one of the most entertaining and best-loved acts on the UK folk scene today.

Mixing global rhythms with folk tunes from Quebec to Spain, Scandinavia to Sussex and everywhere in between, this is a quirky celebration of our rich musical heritage – and it works so well!

This is a show like nothing you've ever seen before – expect feel good dancing tunes, audience participation, step dancing, Quebecois foot percussion (whilst playing the accordion) and humour aplenty.

Always re booked and always talked incredibly highly of, we have no doubt that The Hut People are one of the top-class, most entertaining and musically brilliant acts on the circuit; it's no wonder audiences keep coming back year after year!

Audience: 8+/family

This is a brilliantly unique sound – a duo of piano accordion and percussion defiantly unbounded by British traditions as they stride into world music.

LA BELLA AND THE LOST CHORD OF ULANBATAAR

Appleby • Brigg • Goxhill

La Bella and the lost chord of Ulanbataar is a musical journey following our three hapless musicologists to find the fabled Lost Chord which will enable any musician to find enlightenment, play any tune and possibly solve the mystery of K's missing scotch egg. Think Tintin, Holmes and possibly Gardner's Questions wrapped up with some banging tunes, stentorian theatrics and the joke in the dying minutes.

Airships to Istabul! Delving into the ancient mysteries of the Middle East... Epic journeys across the Mongolian deserts in old jalopies, chasing spies along the Silk Road... High Priests and Holy temples among jagged mountain peaks...

THE RAGGED TROUSERED PHILANTHROPISTS

Scunthorpe • Barton Upon Humber

A new one man magic lantern show performed and adapted by Neil Gore.

Neil Gore brings his witty, humorous and absorbing classic book to life in his one-man Magic Lantern show. Based on the famous book by Robert Tressell, it features political conjuring, music and songs echoing life in the building trades of Edwardian England.

I AIN'T AFRAID OF NO GHOST!

Winterton

A comic investigation into an 80's childhood haunting where nothing is quite what it seems.

It's 1986. I am eight years old. Prince Andrew and Fergie get married in the summer. Dirty Den serves Angie divorce papers on Christmas Day. And I'm sharing my bedroom with a KitKat-pinching ghost."

Inspired by his favourite film, little Gareth became a self-appointed Ghostbuster, launching an investigation into a playful poltergeist. Now, three decades later, with the help of home videos, retro toys and interviews with his nearest and dearest, grown-up Gareth is determined to uncover what was really going on inside his very own haunted house.

Join us for a nostalgic trip back to the 80s and a comic exploration of a childhood haunting where nothing is quite what it seems — all wrapped up in some formidable fashions, stuffed with sweet treats and set to a cheese-tastic chart-topping soundtrack.

CLIMB THAT TREE

Scunthorpe

David Gibb is on a one man mission to make brilliant, engaging and high quality music for families and children. Climb That Tree is the brand new show from award-winning songwriter and musician David Gibb. Join David on a musical journey through his hilarious and often surreal imagination, where bears live in the cupboard under the stairs, wolves are roaming the corridors at school and trips to the moon are a regular occurrence.

This latest release builds on the success of his critically acclaimed debut album Letters Through Your Door, which had families across the UK singing (quite literally) its praises. David's songwriting draws from a wide range of musical influences, deftly blending folk, jazz, reggae and rock and roll, always with an emphasis on quality and musicianship reminiscent of the classics. Guaranteed to have both parents and children singing along in no time, this is music that the whole family can enjoy together.

LETTERS THROUGH YOUR DOOR

Crowle • Worlaby

David Gibb has just had the best birthday party ever. There was jelly and ice-cream, everyone danced their socks off and he got some amazing presents. But now there's just one thing left that he needs to do... David needs to write his thank you letters – and he needs your help! Join him for an after party full of songs, laughter and lots of joining in as he attempts to send a musical letter of thanks to each one of his friends and family before the postman comes and it's too late.

David Gibb's song writing draws from a wide range of musical influences, deftly blending folk, jazz, reggae and rock and roll, always with an emphasis on quality and musicianship reminiscent of the classics. Guaranteed to have both parents and children singing along in no time, this is music that the whole family can enjoy together.

Goxhill

Physically exhilarating and touchingly poignant, Knot is the internationally acclaimed circus and dance work by Nikki Rummer and JD Broussé. These talented performers use hand-to-hand circus skills to tell the tale of an impossible choice: How can we be honest with ourselves without hurting those we love? Knot is a finely crafted theatrical journey through the struggles of commitment. Created in collaboration with award-winning choreographer Ben Duke of Lost Dog Dance Company, Knot is a very modern affair told with delicate sensitivity through breath-taking acrobatics and heart wrenching dance.

Quality acrobatics, good story-telling, surprising twist and wide appeal.

Audience: 11+ /Adults

Barton-Upon-Humber

Alleyne Dance aesthetic reflects their diverse background of athleticism and dance training blending Afro-Caribbean, Hip Hop, Kathak, Latin and Circus Skills within a contemporary dance context. Their movement is fast paced and dynamic with infusions of lyrical and fluid motion, with a focus on rhythms and textures.

A Night's Game reflects the turmoil and strife of human emotion when faced with the prospect of incarceration. Explore the minds journey as the contemplation of the loss of freedom engulfs every waking moment. Inspired by true life events, Alleyne Dance create a dark, atmospheric and abstract work. Kristina and Sade bring to the stage dynamism and athletic strength delivered with grace and beauty. This is a work that is as thrilling as it is powerful.

Audience: 12+ /Adults
